

WHAT IS SALIVA?

Saliva is the watery substance we have in our mouths, sometimes called spit. Have you ever wondered why we have spit? Saliva is there to moisten our mouths and allow us to speak and swallow easily. Saliva also contains certain digestive enzymes that start the process of breaking down food.

Disney
BE HEALTHY
BE ACTIVE